VERNONIA

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril John are now enjoying the pleasure of a new Chevrolet car.

Mr. Lee Rogers, who has been in Eastern Oregon; for the last three months, returned home Friday night.

Mr. Nelson Rogers, one of the first boys from Vernonia to enlist, has returned to his home, after two years in France.

"Grandma" Keasy, who has been visiting her son, Mr. Cad Keasy of Rock Creek, returned to her home in Corvallis Saturday morning.

Mr. Lavern Stanton and father and Mr. Curtis John are expecting to make the trip from Portland to Nehalem next Saturday night on their motorcycles.

The W. R. C. of Vernonia are planning a reception for the returned soldiers and sailors. Every one is to be invited and an enjoyable time is expected.

The Vernonia Sunday school and church suffered from the absence of their organist, Miss Gladys Malmsten, who went to Portland some time ago with her uncle, Mr. Charles Malmsten.

Mr. Glen Sheeley was surprised last Wednesday evening by a call from eight young people, who were highly repaid by the many interesting things which Mr. Sheeley told them of his experiences in France.

Mrs. I. Spencer entertained a bunch of young people Friday night in honor of Ray Mill's birthday. Every one pronounced it a splendid success and thanked Mrs. Spencer heartily for a very good time.

Mr. William MacAttee, a prominent farmer of Eastern Oregon, passed over the St. Helens-Pittsburg road and through the Nehalem valley last week on a business trip to see Prof. G. W. Brown. Mr. MacAttee, who has lived in Eastern Oregon the greater part of his life, has seen many bad roads but unhesitatingly pronounced the Pittsburg road the worst that he had ever traveled.

WARREN

Warren's first annual stock show has come and gone and was a most decided success. Early in the day the thoroughbred stock began to arrive, accompanied by their proud owners. The interest shown was very gratifying and the stock exhibited was first-class in every respect. The heaviest exhibitors were A. H. Tarbell of Shorthorn fame and John Farr, who is compelled to milk some of his Holsteins three times daily and threatens to milk at 12 o'clock at night, running four shifts, if his cows increase in milk next year as they have this past season. The Holsteins exhibited were all thoroughbreds owned by John Farr, Lewis Snider, John Josephson, Fred Boesel and K. F. Larsen. The Shorthorns, A. H. Tarbell of Warren; Ray Tarbell, of Yankton, who showed his enterprise in the affair to bring stock from the neighboring district. Of this exhibit it can be truthfully said there is nothing better in the state.

The hogs were exhibited by the Oregon Berkshire Company and Hannah Morris. The Oregon Berkshire company had all classes represented, consisting of five specimens. Over $17,000 worth of stock was represented and the affair was especially well attended. The ladies of the grange served a fine dinner to everyone who came. Many wished to know where the cashier was, but true to Warren's ladies hospitality, the cashier was absent and not needed. At dinner short and interesting talks were made by D. C. Howard, Prof. Potter of O. A. C., the county agricultural agent of Clatsop county, Mr. West, cashier of the Scappoose bank, Mr. Wilson of Linnton, Mr. Addis of the Oregon Farmer, Mr. Fry of Meadowbrook farm near Newberg, Laurence Tarbell of Yankton, J. W. Fullerton, C. M. Hyskell, K. F. Larsen and A. H. Tarbell. All expressed themselves as delighted with the affair.

The contest in judging of stock among the boys and girls was very interesting and spirited. Cash premiums amounting to $9.00 were distributed to those coming nearest to judging correctly. Helen Grewell was the winner of the first prize of $3.00. Next in rotation came John Lund and Liza Cooper, who tied and received $2.00 each and the other two prize winners were Arnold Tarbell and Walter Olson.

The promoters will make the affair an annual event and publicity will be given so that at least one resident of St. Helens may know of it and be present.

Ray Harms, Alpheus Wellborn and Walter Lund are expected home on Saturday from an extended outing to the mountains scenery of Southern Oregon. At last reports they were at Klamath Falls, headed for the California line, for what reason none of their friends can conjecture as California is dry since July 1, but many of their close friends are asking to have reserved anything they may bring from the grape state.

Mrs. O. A. Erickson and two sons have returned from an extended outing at Seaside. Oscar spent the week end at Seaside.

Mrs. A. L. Morris visited in Portland on Saturday visiting her friend, Mrs. Rosenblatt of San Francisco, who is a house guest of Dr. Bauer.

Mr. and Mrs. Tarbell and Guy Tarbell spent Tuesday at the Warren stock show.

Homers Legg spent Sunday at the Briggs home; his cousins, Esther and Shirley, returning to Portland with him Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brookman, who now live near Sherwood, were in Yankton Monday. They intend moving back here soon.

Horace Addis and Prof. Potter, professor of animal husbandry at O. A. C., were in Yankton Tuesday looking over the herds of Shorthorns and Jerseys.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis of Bitter Root, Montana, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dahlberg. They are old friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dahlberg and are well pleased with our neighborhood.

DEER ISLAND

E. T. Connell and wife were Portland visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. F. McDonald was a St. Helens visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. S. L. Butler visited with the English family Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. McDonald spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Connell.

Miss Myrl Davis of Medford, is visiting with Miss Marie Beaver the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Antone of St. Helens visited with their sister, Mrs. June English Sunday.

Miss Ethel Edwards returned to her home Monday after several days visiting with friends here.

A good many from here took in the ball game at Goble Sunday. The Deer Island team defeated Goble 15 to 3.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Spencer has the measles, but is getting along nicely at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Keelan and children, Mary and Fred, left Sunday by steamer Rose City, for Los Angeles. Mrs. Keelan went for her health, but Mr. Keelan will return in a few days.

Way, the 15-year-old daughter of William Casterline, was taken very ill last Saturday week. She was taken to Rainier for medical aid, but passed away last Saturday after a week's illness, with tuberculosis of the bowels. The funeral took place in Portland at Rose City cemetery on Monday.

son Thursday afternoon. The meeting was social; lunch was served and a pleasant time enjoyed by all.

Mrs. J. G. Watts, Helen and James, Rev. Cooke and family left last Thursday for three weeks vacation at Seaside and Cannon beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller announce the marriage of their daughter, Eva, to Mr. Arthur Saint, Saturday, July 26th. Mr. and Mrs. Saint will reside in Portland.

Miss Shatto was given a parcel shower Thursday afternoon. Her marriage to Mr. Charles Grant will take place in the near future.

Floyd McKay left Monday for Seattle, where he will sail on the Meridin for Honolulu. We wish him a safe journey.

Congregational Church—Geo. V. McClure, pastor—Sunday School at 10:15; Morning Worship at 11:15; C. E., 7:00 o'clock; Evening Worship at 8:00 o'clock.

A large and enthusiastic crowd attended the Holstein sale of Pomeroy & Son Monday. The stock was in fine condition and brought record prices.

During the afternoon the bidding was lively and spirited. The herd of 60 head amounted to about $27,000. The famous bull, Hollywood Little Korndyke, brought $3000, and the cow, Queen Ocean Rideau, sold for $1000.

Also a two-day-old calf sold for $140. Lewis & Company of California purchased eight head of cattle during the auction, and afterward bought eight calves at private sale, at an average of $300 per calf. This sale is evidence for the rancher that it pays to keep pedigreed stock.

A public reception for our boys who have recently returned from the service will be held Saturday evening, August 2 at the school 7:00 p. m. There will be a basket picnic. Every one is invited to bring their supper and enjoy a social time. Tables will be arranged in the playshed; hot coffee will be served, but every one is requested to bring their own tablecloth, picnic plate and cup. Spoons will be provided. A program has been arranged, to be rendered later in the evening.

Mrs. Merle Emerson of Los Angeles, California, left Thursday for her home after a two weeks' visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. A. Colvin of Scappoose.

Mrs. Emerson was formerly Miss Jessie McGregor of Goble and in company with her mother, Mrs. Jane Armstrong, was delightfully entertained during the week there. Sunday a party consisting of Mr. Fred Rabinsky, Mrs. Jane Armstrong, Mrs. Emerson and Mr. and Mrs. Colvin enjoyed a trip over the Columbia highway, visiting the state fish hatchery at Bonneville.
